Volume 25 Issue 4

From the Pastor's Pen

My sisters and brothers in Christ,

Jesus is risen! He is risen indeed! Easter is a glorious day. Spring has charged the birds to serenade us awake each morning. The budding leaves of trees and plants remind us of the world bringing forth annual new life. Dogwood trees, buttercups, daffodils, lilies, Bradford pear trees, and tulips beautifully flower God's creation and are adorned with prettier raiment than even Solomon in all his glory. Spring brings us all back to life after winter's deathly grasp. The seasonal cycle of life marks our time on earth. Many compare the seasons to the cycle of life for humanity. There are several similarities between the seasons and the cycle of life, but the Resurrection of our Lord is different from the passing of the seasons. Our Lord lived, suffered, died, and was raised only once. We live, die, and are raised only once. Our lives end. Our resurrection comes after our death. We are raised by the power of God to live eternally in heaven, a place of far more joy and life than we can imagine in the presence of God. The circular pattern of life for the seasons can point us to the renewal of our lives after being dead in our sins; yet, it is not the ultimate plan for our lives as Christians, which we remember in the unique death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. As Jesus was raised, we are raised from the dead only once.

Knowing that being human means we end in death may help us to focus our lives with purpose. To have a central life purpose defines who we are and what we do. What is your central purpose? We may agree that our purpose is like what is said in the "The Shorter Catechism," written by the Westminster Assembly in 1649: "Q. 1. What is the chief end of man? A. Man's chief end is to glorify God, and to enjoy him forever." (Book of Confessions, 7.001, p. 175) Each part of the answer of question 1 has scripture passages tied to it. For instance, the first part of the answer came from 1 Corinthians 1:31, "So, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God," and Romans 11:36, "For from him (God) and through him and to him are all things. To him be glory forever." And the second half of Q. 1 answer comes from Psalm 73:24-26 with its beautiful view of our relationship with God: "You guide me with your counsel, and afterward you will receive me with honor. Whom have I in heaven but you? And there is nothing on earth that I desire other than you. My flesh and my heart may fail, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever." Our purpose for life as a Christian is "to glorify God, and to enjoy God forever." I believe the Westminster Assembly almost four hundred years ago expressed humanity's purpose quite well, especially for our month celebrating the resurrection of our Lord and Savior, the Son of God. He is risen!

May the joy of Easter be yours,

Jim

PW CIRCLE MEETING

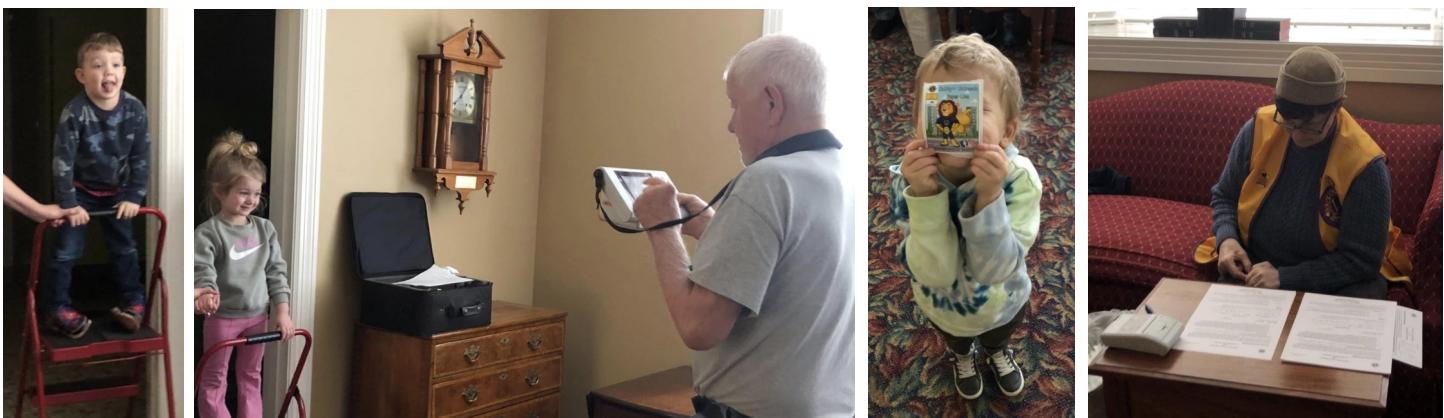

The regular Circle meeting and Bible study will be held Tuesday, April 8th at 10:00am in the Young Adult classroom. Connie Crafton will be leading a discussion of Chapter 4 in our study book. Also, please remember to bring your BIRTHDAY OFFERING this month. This year's offering will go to build a safe house for those needing temporary housing at Leland Presbyterian Church in Leland, MS and 3 houses for the Lakota tribe on Pine Ridge Reservation in South Dakota. The annual PW birthday offering is always used to fund projects both domestic and international in the area of agricultural development, child care and women's concerns.

PW Bakeless Bake Sale

PW announces our fundraising event of the year to be held during the month of April. This is guaranteed to be a calorie free, work free, hassle free event to replace our once upon a time famous bake sale that featured the baking skills of First Presbyterian Church's excellent cooks. During Covid times we cancelled the sale for obvious reasons and have not resumed as we realized our bakers are getting more mature, we were buying our own products and it was a lot of work. In lieu of a bake sale, the PW Council voted to hold a Bakeless Bake Sale during the month of April. There will be envelopes in the pew racks for checks or cash during the whole month. If you pay by check please make the check payable to Presbyterian Women. This offering is our only fundraiser. The money is used to give donations to 8 charities in our area, to host wedding and baby showers for our grown up church children and other miscellaneous needs in the church that the women traditionally tend to. We will appreciate your generosity and you can thank us for protecting your waistline.

PW Spring Salad Supper

The annual Spring Salad Supper will be held April 15th at 6:00pm in the fellowship hall at church. Our speaker will be Doug Murphy who will talk about the Duck River which we recognize as a beautiful natural treasure that wends its way through Bedford County. He will speak about the current issues surrounding water usage from the Duck as well as the many other gifts the river has to offer us. Please plan to come, bringing with you a salad to share and a friend to enjoy the fellowship of FPC women.

Vision Screening

Thank you to the Lions Club for taking the time to visit with and administer a vision screening on all of the kiddos.

Prior to tonight's Ash Wednesday's service, the congregation enjoyed an Italian style meal together. Special thanks to our Fellowship Committee for setting up, cleaning up, decorating, and providing the meal which was delizioso!!!

Easter Egg Hunt April 13, 2025

Where: The Wilhelm's House (Richard & Kristin)
Time: 2:00pm (if raining we will relocate to church)
2:00pm Craft Time
2:30pm The Story of Easter with Pastor Jim
2:40pm The HUNT is ON!

Palm Sunday, April 13th:

All children and youth (ages 2 thru Grade 12) are asked to meet "Miss Kate" outside the sanctuary in front of the double doors at 9:55am on Sunday, March 24 (Palm Sunday) to receive their palms and to line up for the Procession of the Palms which will begin our service that morning. (In the event of inclement weather, we will meet at the back of the sanctuary.)

"Hosanna, loud hosanna!
The little children sang!"

We are graciously accepting donations of small, individually wrapped candy for the Easter Egg Hunt. ONE BAG is perfect. (We tend to get a lot!!) Donations may be left in the church office. Thank You!!

Don't forget to bring your cut flowers on Easter, April 20th for our Flower Cross!! It will be available at the Easter Sunrise Service at 7:00am and outside the sanctuary prior to our 10:00am Resurrection of the Lord Worship Service.
