Jesus heals the woman with a bent back on a Sabbath. Artist: J.S. Humfleet

Grace and peace to you from God our Father and our Lord Jesus Christ!

What does it take to be a disciple of Jesus? Luke told the story of Jesus and his disciples by detailing what it means to be a disciple of the rabbi Jesus. A disciple loves her neighbor (Luke 10:25-37); a disciple loves the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob (10:38-42); a disciple prays (11:1-13), gives God a thought (12:13-21), expects the return of his Master (12:32-40), and discerns the time (12:49-56). To be a disciple of Jesus takes love of God and neighbor, praying without ceasing, being centered on God instead of your belly button, living with the great expectation of the return of Jesus to bring in the kingdom of God, and discerning the time. This Sunday we discover that a disciple keeps the Sabbath a holy day of rest and worship. (13:10-17) Jesus frees us from the daily rhythm of work and consumption of as much as we can get and gives us rest, renewal, and regeneration, which is what First Prez provides for all through the grace of Christ.

As most of our church and friends now know, earlier in the week I announced that I have accepted a position as the full-time, transitional (interim) Pastor at FPC – Tullahoma. Our last Sunday together will be in Worship on August 31st. The Session has called a Congregational Meeting following Worship on August 31st for the purpose of dissolving our Pastor/Congregation relationship effective on that date. Our Presbytery of Middle Tennessee Stated Clerk Mary Catherine Sevier, with the agreement of the Commission of Ministry, will moderate the meeting of the congregation after worship. The Presbytery will coach First Prez through the process of calling an installed pastor and before that will assist in finding an interim minister, if the church wants to have one. We have much to celebrate in our ministry together as pastor and the Presbyterian body of Christ in Shelbyville and ask for God's providential guidance as we each begin our new journeys. The Morans are deeply thankful for our time at First Presbyterian Church, Shelbyville, Tennessee. Thank you for your love, many acts of kindness, and continued prayers in the years to come. Truly it has been our honor to serve our Lord together side by side. You, your families, and First Prez will remain a part of our prayer lives. Denise and I wish you God's rich blessings and continued growth in God's love, in Biblical knowledge and faith, and in Christian stature.

May the love of God fill us all with love until our cup overflows,

Jim

Preparation for Worship (reading before the service for quiet meditation)

On the Twenty-First Day of his A Diary of Private Prayer, John Baillie (1886-1960), Professor of Divinity at the University of Edinburgh, recorded this morning prayer: "O Holy Spirit of God visit now this soul of mine, and tarry within it until eventide. Inspire all my thoughts. Pervade all my imaginations. Suggest all my decisions. Lodge in my will's most inward citadel and order all my doings. Be with me in my silence and in my speech, in my haste and in my leisure, in company and in solitude, in the freshness of the morning and in the weariness of the evening; and give me grace at all times to rejoice in Thy mysterious companionship. My heart an altar, and Thy love the flame." (p. 89; the italics is a quote from the last line of the fourth verse hymn #326 "Spirit of God, Descend Upon My Heart" written by George Croly in 1854.)

*Call to Worship (Psalm 92: 1-5)	Brent Canady
---	--------------

Leader: It is good to give thanks to the Lord, to sing praises to Your name, O Most High;

People: To declare Your steadfast love in the morning, and Your faithfulness by night.

Leader: To the music of the lute and the harp, to the melody of the lyre.

People: For You, O Lord, have made me glad by Your work; at the work of Your hands I sing for joy.

Leader: How great are Your works, O Lord! Your thoughts are very deep!

*Hymn	"Glorious Things of Thee Are Spoken"	#446
--------------	--------------------------------------	------

*Call to Confession	(1John 1:9-10)
----------------------------	----------------

Leader: John writes, "If we confess our sins, God is faithful and just and will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

All: "If we say we have not sinned, we make Him a liar, and His word is not in us." In penitence for sinning and by trusting God's faithfulness, let us confess our sins:

 Prayer of Confession (Unison)

Omnipresent Shepherd of Your sheep, hear our prayer of penitence for the sins we have committed by not following You more closely. We are sorry for the wrongs we have done and beseech Your mercy. You, O Shepherd King and God, care for us deeply and provide for our daily needs generously, but we rely on our own power and take full credit for all we have. Forgive our stubborn independence and belief that we live solely by our own devices. You call us to turn the other cheek, to give away our extra coat, to walk the extra mile, but we ignore the needs of another. Forgive our inability to forgive or have compassion. May the light of our Lord Jesus shine brightly upon each of us and brighter and brighter within our church, by the power and name of our Messiah Jesus, the great Shepherd of the sheepfold called First Presbyterian Church.

(silent prayer of confession)

Indicates standing for those who are able.

*Assurance of Pardon

(1 Peter 1:3, 8-9)

Leader: To the exiles of the Dispersion, Peter wrote, "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! By His great mercy He has given us a new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead....

People: Although you have not seen Him, you love Him; and even though you do not see Him now, you believe in Him and rejoice with an indescribable and glorious joy, for you are receiving the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls."

Leader: We believe this good news: in Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning is now and ever shall be world without end. Amen.

*Passing of the Peace

Leader: May the peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

People: And also with you.

Leader: Please share the peace of Christ with those around you.

Pastoral Prayer and The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

*Affirmation of Faith

"The Shorter Catechism" (7.057-7.058, 7.060, The Book of Confessions)

Q. 57. Which is the Fourth Commandment?

A. The Fourth Commandment is, "Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work: but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shall not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maid servant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: for six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath day, and hallowed it."

Q. 58. What is required in the Fourth Commandment?

A. The Fourth Commandment requireth the keeping holy to God such set times as he hath appointed in his Word; expressly one whole day in seven, to be a holy Sabbath to himself.

Q. 60. How is the Sabbath to be sanctified?

A. The Sabbath is to be sanctified by a holy resting all that day, even from such worldly employments and recreations as are lawful on other days; and spending the whole time in the public and private exercises of God's worship, except so much as is to be taken up in the works of necessity and mercy.

Congregational Benediction Response
