From the Pastor's Pen

My Christian brothers and sisters,

For some reason, the Apostle Paul wrote a benediction into the middle of his letter to the church at Ephesus:

Now to him who by the power at work within us is able to accomplish abundantly far more than all we can ask or imagine, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations, forever and ever. Amen. (3:20-21)

Why did Paul plop that benediction in the middle of his letter long before the end three chapters later? The benediction closes the theological first part of the letter about both justification, which is being saved by the grace of God through faith, and also the mystery of the Gentiles becoming fellow heirs with the Jews “in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel” (3:6). The second section of the letter from chapters four through six is the living out of one’s faith, also known as sanctification. The benediction reminded the Ephesians and now reminds the Shelbyvillians that it is the work of God within us that accomplishes far more than we can imagine through the church by the grace of God we know both in our being saved by God, that is justification, and our being made holy by God, that is sanctification. We do not do it alone. It is the grace of God working through us.

The Session of First Prez is reading a book by the Reverend Dr. Joan Gray titled Sailboat Church: Helping Your Church Rethink Its Mission and Practice that reminds us that it is God who does the heavy lifting and works through our church. Each month the Session will review a chapter and discuss its implications for our church. The metaphor of the church being a sailboat, with the wind of the Spirit filling its sails and navigating toward their destination, is compared with the metaphor of the church being a rowboat, with the members rowing away toward their destination. One metaphor gives me a feeling of freedom and strength powered by the wind; the other metaphor makes me feel weary, weak, and needing rest from rowing. Reading Dr. Gray’s book will teach us how to sail as a church powered by the wind of the Spirit. The Session will learn together about navigating a sailboat and becoming sailors who depend more on the wind (the Holy Spirit) to get somewhere than upon our own power and ingenuity alone. Together over the next several months, we’ll learn how to raise the sails and move with the wind of the Spirit.

This first Sunday of June we shall be refreshed by the nourishment of communion at the table of our Lord Jesus. Here at the table we find strength for our Christian journey. We do not minister by our own power alone but by the power of the Holy Spirit. Dr. Gray teaches that one of the practices and attitudes of a sailboat church is that it is “Holy Spirit powered. Just as there is no sailing without the wind, so there is no church worthy of the name apart from the Holy Spirit. The lethargy of many congregations today can be traced directly to ignorance of or apathy toward the third person of the Trinity.” (p. 10, Sailboat Church) May the Holy Spirit be “the power at work within us” and fill the sails of our boat called First Presbyterian Church of Shelbyville, Tennessee so that “speaking the truth in love,” we may “grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ, from whom the whole body, joined and knit together by every ligament with which it is equipped, as each part is working properly, promotes the body’s growth in building itself up in love.” (Ephesians 4:15)

May the Wind of the Spirit fill the sails of First Prez,

Jim
